CICELY MARY BARKER AND HER ART

The creator of the Flower Fairies is at last recognised in this magnificent book by Jane Laird. Lavishly illustrated with original work, it provides a biographical account of the artist with photographs and archive documents, as well as assessing her artistic and literary achievements in the context of the 'Innery' illustrations of the period.

HC 120pp £25.00 Ref: FW1

BEATRIX POTTER'S ART

Though best known as the creator of Peter Rabbit, this magnificent book examines the work of a great English watercolourist for whom the natural world was her chief inspiration. It reproduces over 200 of her finest paintings and drawings and demonstrates the wide range of her artistic skill.

HC 180pp £25.00 Ref: FW2

THE MASK OF COMEDY

The Collected Poems of Charles Hamilton

Ref: MHC £15
A must for all Frank Richards fans and a fascinating insight into the 'man behind the mask'. Whilst most of the poetry is cynical it nevertheless shows the author's profound perception of the social issues of his time such as race and the Abolition Crisis. His rejection of hypocrisy and concern for the underdog are clearly discernable values in this hitherto unpublished work.
