

DAN DARE Volume 12

DARE: The Final Volume

The original DAN DARE odyssey (the Venus story in 1950) was actually set in 1995. It therefore seems appropriate and perhaps ironic, that the last volume in our reprint series should be published in the real 1995.

This bumper volume contains five stories:

ALL TRENS MUST DIE • THE MUSHROOM • THE MOONSLEEPERS • THE MENACE FROM JUPITER • OPERATION MOSS

Our hero is finally appointed Space Fleet Controller on his return from Jupiter - the ultimate accolade. But as we all know, DAN DARE is close to the hearts and minds of an entire generation - a generation which is now anticipating the millennium. DAN certainly had the right stuff, and his creators had the vision (thing) - long live DAN DARE!

Volume 11

The Solid Space Mystery & Other Stories

THE SOLID SPACE MYSTERY

Dan and Digby return to the Solar System in the Zplex space ship. En route they observe a crash by another ship which appears to hit something solid, although it is flying through open space. The Mlexon is up to his tricks again!

THE PLATINUM PLANET

Dan and Digby help the inhabitants of the Platinum Planet to overthrow the tyrant who holds them under his evil spell.

THE EARTH STEALERS

Upon their return to Earth, Dan and Digby find a deserted world and a factory called 'Earth Reclamation Ltd'. They are informed that the entire population has moved to Mars following a plague. However the factory's director, Malvol does not fool Dan and he soon puts paid to his evil plan and saves the world yet again.

Volume 2

• Red Moon Mystery

• Marooned on Mercury

RED MOON MYSTERY

The Earth is approached by a gigantic meteorite inhabited by strange life like creatures intent on stripping the world of its vegetation. Dan & Co., manage to lure it away from Earth but in doing so are sent drifting off into space towards Mercury.

MARROWED ON MERCURY

After crash landing on Mercury Dan & Co are rescued by the strange inhabitants of the planet and taken to one of their underground cities. Dan discovers that the Mlexon, aided by a few Trems, has taken over the planet and enslaved the Mercurians.

Dan again overcomes his arch enemy, but as usual, the Mlexon manages to escape.

One of the all time great Frank Hampson stories.

MORE BELLY LAUGHS WITH BUNTER AT GREYFRIARS

Frank Richards celebrated 'yellow jacket' novels were originally published between 1909 and 1962. The series ran to 38 titles and sold hundreds of thousands of copies. Our facsimile reprints continue with four new titles:

BUNTER THE CARAVANNER

The Famous Five come to regret spending the Easter holidays with Bunter in charge of a caravan and home.

£14.95 Ref: 8821

BILLY BUNTER AMONG THE CANNIBALS

Bunter is sent by his despairing father to start an office career - on the South Sea Island of Lalolo. However, the Fat Owl, accompanied by his pals, is taken prisoner by the local savages, and almost ends up in their cooking pot!

WARNING - HIGHLY POLITICALLY INCORRECT (but very funny)

£14.95 Ref: 8822

BILLY BUNTER'S BARGAIN

Bunter seeks a replacement for the worn-out armchair in his study, and finds a suitable bargain. Little does he expect its former owner - a good for nothing Teddy Boy called Freddy Dexter - to show so much interest in it when he is released from jail. With the help of the Famous Five however, Bunter unwittingly gets to the bottom of the matter and earns a handsome reward.

£14.95 Ref: 8823

BILLY BUNTER'S DOUBLE

Under pressure from all quarters, Bunter 'trades places' with his (physically) identical cousin Willy. While the Fat Owl's despair is temporarily relieved, his cousin's high standards at Greyfriars prove to be a tough act to follow.

FACSIMILE STORY PAPERS

10 Assorted Issues - £25 Ref: MAG10

The MAGNET ('Billy Butner's Own Paper') started publication in 1888 and continued until the wartime paper shortages of 1940. Frank Richards' famous Greyfriar School, and its most celebrated pupil, Mr William George Bunter, are immortalised in its clearly typeset pages. The GSM features Richards' other famous creation - Tom Merry & Co of St Jim's - written under the pen name of Martin Clifford. These are exact facsimiles of the originals with all the old line drawings.

GREYFRIARS SCHOOL - A Prospectus HC 19pp Jacketed £3.95 Ref: 1891

The only complete guide to Greyfriars - its history, location, staff, organisation, curriculum, sporting records and facilities. A detailed compendium of information about the school and its inhabitants, which, though imaginary have become very real to generations of readers.

GOODBYE GREYFRIARS HC 193 pp Jacketed £28 Ref: HBM 108

The final volume in the Howard Baker Omnibus series. Contains 8 issues of THE MAGNET with all genuine Frank Richards stories - 'The Other Bunter', 'Sticking to His Guns', 'A Split in the Study', 'The Sentence of the School', 'Mr D'Souza's Sale', 'The Miles Study', 'The Bouncer's Guest' and 'Under Butner's Thumb'.

BILLIONAIRES WITH BUNTER HC 216 pp Jacketed £14.95 Ref: HBM 04

The imperious Bunter actually becomes the wealthiest boy at Greyfriars! Also features a single story featuring Horace Coker - 'The Boy Who Wouldn't be Cared'.

AUCTIONS AT GREYFRIARS HC 326 pp Jacketed £14.95 Ref: HBM006

A collection of stories, mostly dating from 1931. Includes All the Fun of the Fifth, a typical Guy Hawkins Day story, and Coker's Football fever, as well as The Bouncer's Blunder and A Brother's Sacrifice.

Greyfriars Book Club

THE ISLAND OF ADVENTURE

by Lind Blyden
Facsimile Edition

First published in 1944 this classic story is set in Cornwall where four children - Philip, Dinah, Jack, Lory-Ann (and Bill the parrot) set out to solve the mystery of the Isle of Gloam. Original illustrations by Stuart Trevelyan.

HC 328 pp £14.99 Ref: MC1

POPEYE

A celebration of the spinach chomping sailor created by E C Segar back in 1929 - and still going strong. Contains some of the best (and rarest) examples of Segar's work, as well as the various artists who continued the strip after his death in 1938. Also contains sections on merchandise and collectibles, comic books, films and videos.

HC 128 pp £14.95 Ref: POP1

OGLY MARY BARKER AND HER ART

The creator of the Flower Fairies is at last recognised in this magnificent book by Jane Lings. Lavishly illustrated with original work, it provides a biographical account of the artist, with photographs and archive documents, as well as assessing her artistic and literary achievements in the context of the 'vintage' illustrators of the period.

HC 128 pp £25.00 Ref: FW1

BEATRIX POTTER'S ART

Though best known as the creator of Peter Rabbit, this magnificent book examines the work of a great English watercolourist for whom the natural world was her chief inspiration. It reproduces over 200 of her finest paintings and drawings and demonstrates the wide range of her artistic skill.

RUPERT FACSIMILE ANNUALS

The golden age of Rupert, as illustrated by Alfred Bestall, Lord Beaconsfield, owner of the Daily Express and Minister of Supply in the War Cabinet, decided that it was important for money to continue publishing the annuals which had become a Christmas treat for so many children.
