

Our Contributors

Without whose help this Volume would not have been completed and to whom grateful acknowledgment is now made

"Amateur Casual"	Herbert Leckenby
Thomas Armitage	John Medcraft
H. M. Bond	Henry A. Puckrin
H. R. C.	T. W. Puckrin
Jack Corbett	C. F. F. Rickard
"Cymro"	Frank Richards
Walter Dexter	Henry Steele
Harry Dowler	Leon Stone
Arget Harris	F. Addington Symonds
Alfred Horsey	Leslie Vosper

Contents of Volume 1

No. 1, January-March, 1941 :	Page
The Boys' Friend: A Famous Boys' Journal —by W. H. G.	1
No. 2, April-June, 1941 :
The Magnet and The Gem Libraries —by W. H. G.	10
Barry Ono: Obituary Notice	17
Periodicals of 1900-12—by Arthur Budge	18
No. 3, July-September, 1941 :
The Empire Library —by C. F. F. Rickard	22
The "Thri'penny" Libraries—by W. H. G.	26
Some Former Boys' Writers: Part 1	28
No. 4, October-December, 1941 :
Fun and Fiction and The Bullseye —by W. H. G.	34
The Magnet Artist , C. H. Chapman—by C. F. F. Rickard	38
Some Former Boys' Writers: Part 2	42
No. 5, Christmas, 1941 :
The First Boys' Herald Christmas Number—by W. H. G.	46
The "Xmas" Number—by Matthew M. Hunter	50
Story Papers of the Past: Part 1—by Henry A. Puckrin	51
No. 6, January-March, 1942 :
Sexton Blake v. Nelson Lee—by Harry Dowler	54
The Magnet Artist , C. H. Chapman: a letter—John Medcraft	56
Story Papers of the Past: Part 2—by Henry A. Puckrin	58
Something About The Wonder —by W. H. G.	60
What the Victorian Boy Read	62
No. 7, April-June, 1942 :
Henry St. John Cooper—by Harry Dowler	66
Just Where Is Greyfriars?—by W. H. G.	69
The Thomson House Boys' Papers	72

	Page
No. 8, July-September, 1942 :
The Greyfriars Herald —by W. H. G.	78
Sequence or Series Stories in The Gem Library — by C. F. F. Rickard	83
No. 9, October-December, 1942 :
Henry St. John v. David Goodwin—by Harry Dowler	92
Harry Wharton—by T. W. Puckrin	94
Interesting Gleanings From Letters, No. 1: The Gem and The Magnet	95
Amalgamated Press Boys' Authors—by Harry Dowler	96
An Extract From Present Indicative (Noel Coward)	98
The Twelve Greatest Serials—by Herbert Leckenby	100
No. 10, Christmas, 1942 :
Recollections of an Old Time Christmas Number— by Henry Steele	104
Interesting Gleanings From Letters, No. 2: R.A.H. Goodyear	109
English Proverbs as Rendered by Hurree Janset Ram Singh	110
No. 11, January-March, 1943 :
The Old Papers of the Post-1918 Period—by "Cymro"	114
Interesting Gleanings From Letters, No. 3: The Wonder	115
Charlie Chaplin as a Comic and Story Paper Character—by W. H. G.	116
Warwick Reynolds: An Appreciation, Part 1— by C. F. F. Rickard	118
After Fifty Years—by Henry Steele	122
No. 12, April-June, 1943 :
Sexton Blake the Eternal—by Herbert Leckenby	128
Stories to Remember, Part 1—by T. W. Puckrin	132
The Master of the Pen: a Poem—by Henry Steele	135
Boyhood Memories—by John Medcraft	136
A 48-Year-Old Mystery—by W. H. G.	139
No. 13, July-September, 1943 :
Warwick Reynolds: An Appreciation, Part 2— by C. F. F. Rickard	144

	Page
Richard Randolph—by "Cymro"	150
Writers and Illustrators—by Henry A. Puckrin	152
Interesting Gleanings From Letters, No. 4: Dr. Locke and Mr. Quelch	154
These I Have Loved—by "Amateur Casual"	155
No. 14, October-December, 1943:
Artists of the Golden Era—by John Medcraft	160
There Was Magic in Their Names—by Herbert Leckenby	168
More About Papers of the Post-1918 Period—by "Cymro"	174
Richard Randolph and the Levison Series in The Gem	176
No. 15, Christmas, 1943:
The First Christmas Number of The Boys' Friend —by W.H.G.	180
Miscellanea	184
No. 16, January-March, 1944:
Frank Richards: The Founder of Greyfriars—by Jack Corbett	188
Charles Hamilton: A Tribute—by Herbert Leckenby	193
Greyfriars Youth: a Poem—by Jack Corbett	facing 196
Random Recollections—by Henry A. Puckrin	197
" The Magnet ": a Poem—by Henry Steele	200
No. 17, April-June, 1944:
Favourites and Footlights—by Alfred Horsey	204
Arthur Budge: Dealer Extraordinary in Old Boys' Papers—by Herbert Leckenby	212
Interesting Gleanings From Letters, No. 5: J. N. Pentelow	214
Account of the Death of Mr. R. Hamilton Edwards	216
No. 18, July-September, 1944:
The Amalgamated Press in Its Heyday— by Herbert Leckenby	220
Different Papers: But the Same Name!—by W. H. G.	227
Some Curious Things Were Done by Editors in the Old Days: a Poem—by Henry Steele	228
No. 19, October-December, 1944:
The Champion —by Herbert Leckenby	232

	Page
The Story of The Champion —by F. Addington Symonds, Founder and First Editor	236
Plate: Front Page of No. 1 of The Champion	facing 236
The Baker Street Irregulars—by W. H. G.	239
The Dream: a Poem—by Henry Steele	240
No. 20, Christmas, 1944:
Schools in Juvenile Fiction—by Herbert Leckenby	244
The Third-Oldest British Comic Paper—by Walter Dexter	250
Walter Dexter: Obituary Notice	252
Boys of the Empire : Issue No. 4—by Henry Steele	253
The English Public School: Book Review—by W. H. G.	255
Arthur Budge: Letter to the Editor—Herbert Leckenby	257
Stories to Remember, Part 2—by T. W. Puckrin	258
The Red Rovers: a Correction	260
Canadian Jack: a Poem—by Henry Steele	260
No. 21, January-March, 1945:
Robert Hamilton Edwards, Writer and Editor: A Tribute—by Henry A. Puckrin	264
Frank Richards Redivivus!—by Frank Richards	266a
The Nelson Lee Library —by H. R. C.	267
The Boy's Standard : An Outstanding Paper—by Arget Harris	270
John G. Rowe: A Prolific Boys' Writer of Past Years— by Herbert Leckenby	272
Plate: Front Page of Pluck Library No. 449, 1st series	facing 274
The Theatre and Boys' Literature	275
No. 22, April-June, 1945:
Further Reminiscences—by Henry A. Puckrin	280
The Union Jack Library —by H. R. C.	283
Plate: Front Page of Union Jack Lib'y No. 270, 1st series	facing 284
Gilbert Patten: Obituary Notice	285
Billy Bunter: Some Reflections—by Herbert Leckenby	286
Stories to Remember, Part 3: The Robin Hood Series— by T. W. Puckrin	292
H. A. Hinton: Obituary Notice	293

No. 23, July-September, 1945:	Page
The Story of Ezra Quirke, Schoolboy Magician—by Leslie Vosper . . .	298
The Passing of "Burt L. Standish"	301
"Down Under" Devotees of Bunter & Co.—by Leon Stone	302
Long and Short Careers—by Herbert Leckenby . . .	305
Interesting Gleanings From Letters: The Wonder . . .	313
No. 24, October-December, 1945:
Supposing Harry Wharton Had Grown Up--- and Billy Bunter Too!—by Herbert Leckenby	318
Chums —by T. W. Puckrin	321
The Highwayman in Fact and Fiction—by Henry A. Puckrin	324
The St. Jim's Gallery—Reviewed by C. F. F. Rickard . .	327
The Passing of George Hamilton Teed—by H. Leckenby .	336
No. 25, Christmas, 1945:
Illustration: Front Page of The Boys' Leader No. 1 . . .	341b
"Featuring Sexton Blake and . . ."—by H. M. Bond . . .	342
Who Is Frank Richards? Ask His Down Under "Cobbers"—Related by W. H. G. . . .	345
The Christmas Double Number: A Victorian Tradition—by Henry A. Puckrin	353
Drawings From Memory—by Thomas Armitage	356
Two of the Best: The Big Budget and The Boys' Leader —by Herbert Leckenby	357
Appreciation—by H. R. C. and Herbert Leckenby . . .	367
Editorial Comment:
Introducing	7
Notes	19, 31, 43, 63, 75, 99, 111
P. S.	124
S. P. Comment	200, 215, 241, 314, 338
Looking Backward---and Forward	341a
Index	371