

THE NEW
TOM MERRY'S OWN

Published by
MANDEVILLE PUBLICATIONS
45 Great Russell Street, London, W.C.1

Printed by The Reynard Press, Ltd., Flitcroft Street, London, W.C.2

THE NEW
TOM MERRY'S
OWN

MANDEVILLE PUBLICATIONS

FOREWORD

Here is Tom Merry's Own again.

Here are all our old friends, Tom Merry and Jimmy Silver, Arthur Augustus D'Arcy and Billy Bunter, and the rest of the happy crowd, as lively as ever.

Kingdoms rise and fall : frontiers fluctuate : old landmarks are lost : but Tom Merry and Co., like the poet's little brook, go on : to delight—I hope—my young readers while reminding older ones of happy days that are gone. Meet once more Billy Bunter, fattest and most fatuous member of the Greyfriars community : Tom Merry, that cheery specimen of British boyhood : Arthur Augustus D'Arcy, the glass of fashion and the mould of form at St. Jim's : Jimmy Silver and his comrades of Rockwood School. And if you enjoy their company as much as I have enjoyed chronicling their adventures—and misadventures—then no one will be happier than,

Your old Friend,

Martin Clifford

CONTENTS

THE GHOST OF ST. JIM'S	7
by Frank Richards
THIS IS ABOUT YOU... ..	72
by Edward Northcott
THE TENTING CIRCUS GOES OUT	73
by Butch Reynolds
CRAB WISE!	80
by Edward Northcott
A BARGAIN IN BIKES	81
by Owen Conquest
I WHISTLE WHILE THEY PLAY	107
by a Football League Referee
JUST A DOG	112
by Clive Fenn
BAD LUCK FOR BILLY BUNTER	115
by Frank Richards
THE FIRST JOURNEY TO THE MOON... ..	162
by I. O. Evans, F.R.G.S.
WICKET-KEEPING "DOWN UNDER"	168
by Godfrey Evans
TOUGH ON TURKEY... ..	171
by Frank Richards
JUST AN INCH OF RAIN	188
by Tom Grosvenor
THE LITTLE MAN WITH A BIG HEART	189
by Edward Northcott	